

Andrew Tran, MSW, LSWAIC

29915 118th PL SE Auburn, WA 98092 ♦ Mobile: (206) 307 – 6762 ♦ Andrewtranmsw@gmail.com

Education

- Masters of Social Work (MSW)
 - University of Washington (Seattle, WA), September 2013 – June 2016
 - Concentration in Integrative Health and Mental Health Practice
- Bachelors of Arts in Psychology
 - University of Washington (Seattle, WA), September 2009 – June 2013
- Bachelors of Arts in Sociology
 - University of Washington (Seattle, WA), September 2009 – June 2013

Work Experience

- Valley Medical Center (Renton, WA)
 - Contact: Debbie Sullivan, Lead Social Worker, 206-617-3620
 - Inpatient Medical Social Worker, April 2020 – September 2021
 - Direct clinical practice with acute care patients in the medical-surgical, COVID overflow, NICU, Peds, and Renal Respiratory units.
 - Psychosocial Assessments for ongoing patient care from admission to discharge.
 - Collaboration with interdisciplinary healthcare providers for the planning of safe and successful discharges of patients.
 - Coordination with King County for the detainment of involuntary psychiatric patients and the liaison for voluntary patients experiencing mental health crisis.
 - Coordination of care with community stakeholders such as Skilled Nursing Facilities, Home Health Agencies, DSHS, HCS, CPS, APS, and community health agencies.
 - Daily rounding and planning with management and hospital administration for effective and safe throughput of patient population.
- EvergreenHealth Halvorson Cancer Center (Kirkland, WA)
 - Contact: Shari McClure, Executive Director, 425-899-2265
 - Cancer Support Social Worker (Per diem), October 2019 – April 2020
 - Work in partnership with the Oncology program leadership and other health care professionals to ensure continuity of care for adult patients and families affected by cancer.
 - Consultation to patients and families on psychosocial needs, facilitation of groups, family conferences, and one-on-one emotional support.
 - Collaboration with oncology clinical staff on the psychosocial aspects of patient care, as well as providing the resources to aid patients and families.
 - Assess patient needs through interviews and gather necessary information about patient situation, stressors, functional status, finances, and support systems to address needs.
- Swedish Medical Center (Edmonds, WA)
 - Contact: Dawn St Aubyn, Social Work Supervisor, 206-755-8212
 - Clinical Social Worker/Case Manager, July 2018 – April 2020
 - Direct clinical practice with acute care patients primarily in the emergency department and as a float to PCU, IMCU/ICU, Oncology, and Med-Surg units.
 - Psychosocial Assessments for ongoing patient care from admission to discharge.
 - Collaboration with interdisciplinary healthcare providers for planning the safe and successful discharges of patients.

- Contribute to the development of a goal-directed, age-appropriate plan of care through an interdisciplinary team process that is prioritized and based on determined medical diagnosis, patient needs, and expected patient outcomes.
- Epic Super-user for the Edmonds Case Management department.
- Provided the supervision of clinical interns from local universities based on academic curriculum.
- Valley Cities Behavioral Health (Seattle, WA)
 - Contact: Susie Kroll, Regional Operations Director, 206-390-6935
- Mental Health Clinic Manager, July 2017 – July 2018
 - Provide ongoing supervision to an interdisciplinary team of Therapists, Social Workers, Nurses, Doctors, and Clinicians who provide mental health services.
 - Manage and facilitate daily operations of the Meridian Valley Cities Behavioral Health Clinic.
 - Provide de-escalation and crisis intervention for patients on a daily basis.
 - Crisis outreach within the community which include client homes, hospital emergency rooms, and jails.
 - Mental health assessments that provide an initial diagnosis for patients seeking mental health care and chemical dependency treatment.
 - Collaboration with community partners, medical professionals, and Law Enforcement for the continuity of patient care.
 - Closely monitor mental health clients on a Least Restrictive Order to help clients optimize their treatment plans.
- Valley Cities Behavioral Health (Seattle, WA)
 - Contact: Erin Carnes, Care Coordinator, 512-507-8759
- Lead Intake Specialist and Care Coordinator, June 2016 – July 2017
 - Agency-wide training and implementation of Screening Brief Intervention and Referral to Treatment (SBIRT), as well as the LOCUS and CALOCUS.
 - Collaborate on an integrated model of care with medical, dental, and public health providers.
 - Establish working partnerships with NeighborCare Health and King County Public Health.
 - Take on leadership roles by facilitating team meetings, supervising colleagues, as well as participate in meetings with leadership of integration staff.
 - Provide initial mental health diagnosis for clients seeking counseling and therapy.
 - Monitor and manage caseload of Valley Cities clients.
 - Crisis response and intervention for Meridian Center for Health clients and patients.

Non-English proficiency

- Vietnamese
 - Fluent in Reading, Writing, and Speaking.

Other

- King County Sheriff's Office Crisis Intervention Team
 - 40-Hour CIT Training, March 2017
- Basic Life Support Training and Certification
 - Completed 11/2019